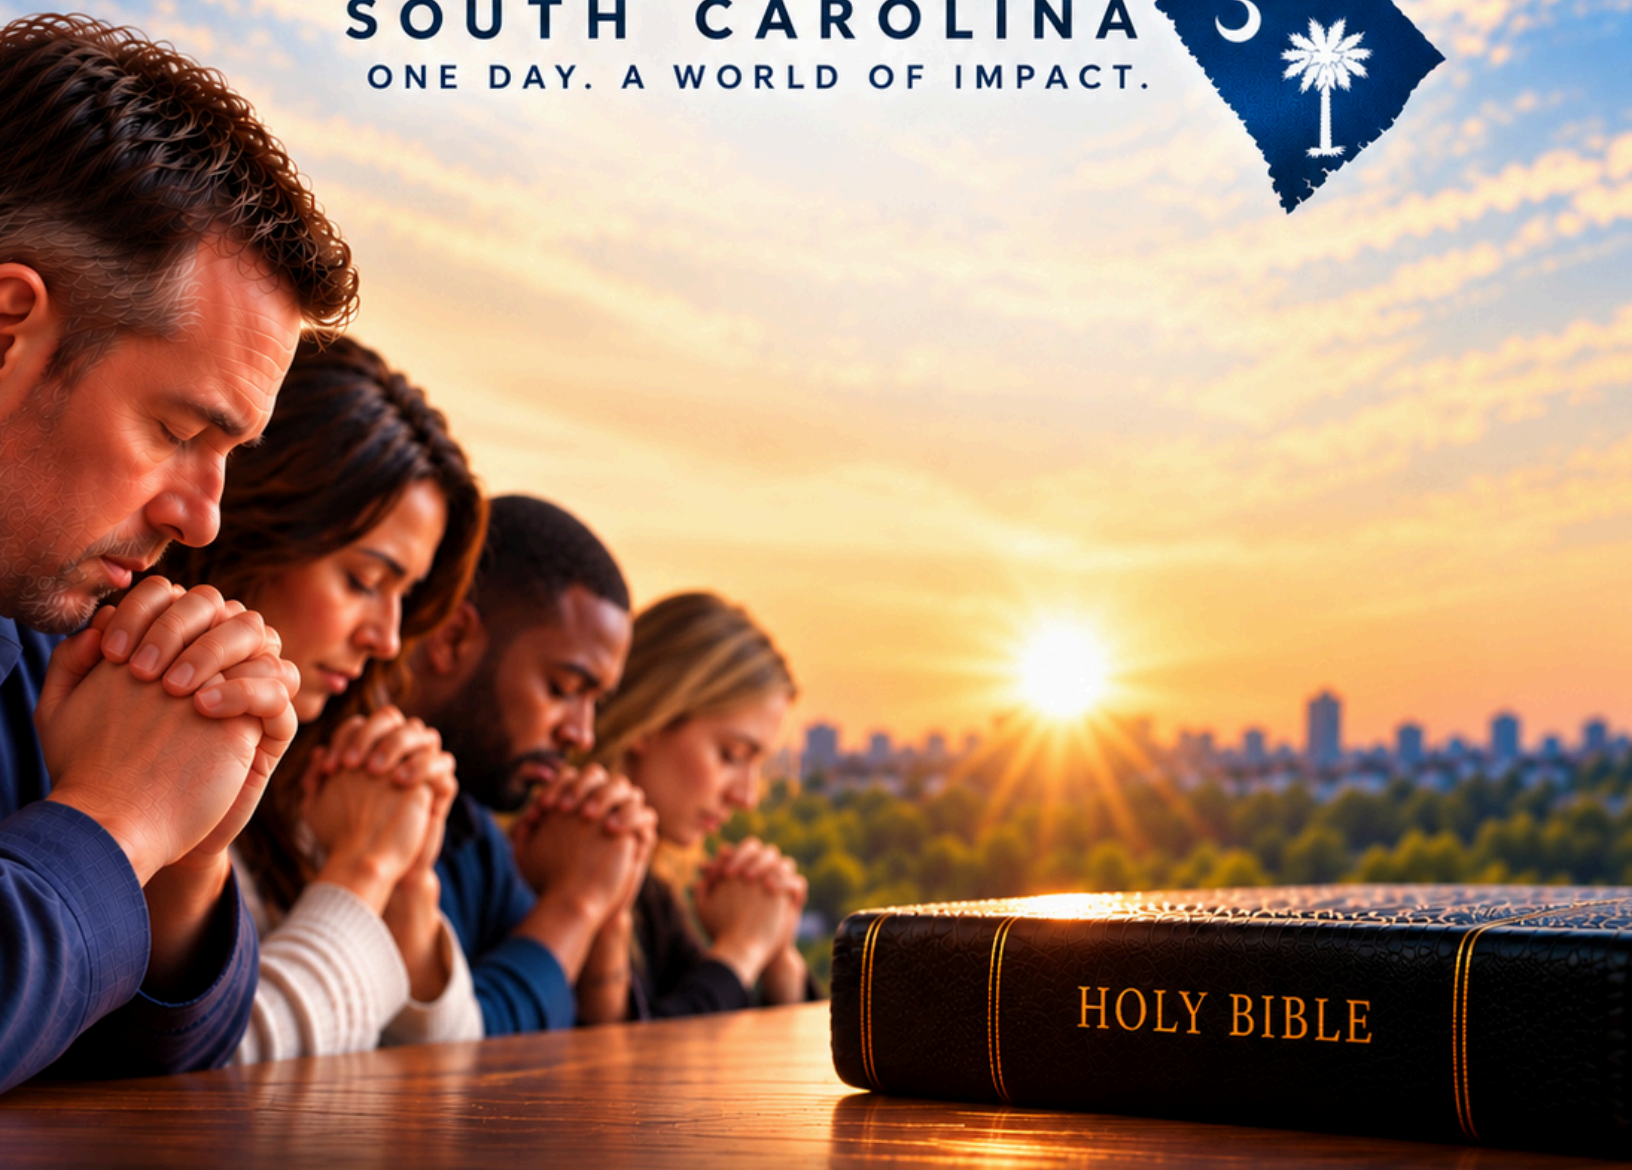
CHILD EVANGELISM FELLOWSHIP®

2026

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

SOUTH CAROLINA

ONE DAY. A WORLD OF IMPACT.



CHILD EVANGELISM FELLOWSHIP®

PRAYER TODAY BRIGHTENS TOMORROWS.

CEF Friends;

There is great joy participating with the LORD in the high calling of intercession for the lost who need the hope of salvation- especially amongst children.

But there is also a desperation we can sense in the combative culture we live in. And our children are caught in the middle of that conflict. What is truth? Where is there stability? What does the future hold? Who is right and who is wrong?

In Lamentations, the LORD invites us to languish in prayer for the children who lack the "Bread of Life". May each of us "not grow weary in well doing" through prayer and obedience unto the LORD to supply the sustenance of hope to this generation.

Perhaps you might find this prayer guide a help for you to participate with us in the great high calling of intercession during the World Day of Prayer and beyond.

Consider becoming an ongoing prayer partner with your Local Chapter of CEF. Contact a staff member who can provide additional prayer requests and opportunities for corporate prayer times. You can find contact information for all eleven Local Chapters at cef-sc.org/locations.

With respect to Christ, His word and work,

Lee

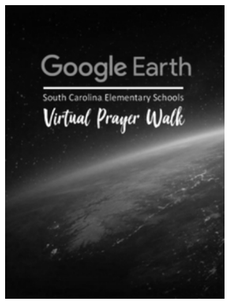
The Seven Laws of Prayer by J. Irvin Overholtzer

Many, many Christians are only occasionally receiving answers to their prayers, or not at all. Many no longer expect answers and continue to pray only from a sense of duty. This is not because these persons are not Christians, neither is it always because there is some flagrant sin in their lives. It is often because the conditions of answered prayer are not being met. These conditions may not even be known or, if known, not understood. It is in regard to these conditions or Laws-for they are virtually that-that we purpose to write.



Google Earth Virtual Prayer Walk

Prayer walks have been a staple of believers for decades in the example of Joshua walking around the walls of Jericho. Although the public elementary schools are currently prohibiting activities due to the COVID-19 threat, we can still have prayer walks through technology. Google Earth provides access to every public elementary school location. On this website, simply find the CEF Chapter, school district and school name to click on the link and virtually observe the school to pray over and around the entire property.

... let no man despise the young, or think them insignificant. I claim a front place for them. I ask that, if others are kept back, at any rate their feebleness may make room for the little ones. They are the world1s future. The past has been and we cannot alter it; even the present is gone while we gaze on it; but our hope lies in the future therefore, by your leave, room for the children, room for the boys and girls!"
